

It's Post Time Radio Show adds Past the Wire segment with Jonathan Stettin

Past the Wire, the popular weekly horse racing column created by Jonathan Stettin, is joining JJ and Samm Graci, on wdbfradio.com with a regular spot on the It's Post Time Radio Show.

HALLANDALE, Fla. - June 28, 2016 - PRLog -- The popular weekly horse racing column, Past the Wire, which has steadily gained a widespread industry following since its creation and inception by professional handicapper, horse racing expert and analyst, Jonathan Stettin, will now have a regular segment on The It's Post Time radio show hosted by JJ and Samm Graci. Jonathan and the Past the Wire segment will be featured every Friday at 4pm. The show frequently broadcasts live from beautiful Gulfstream Park Racetrack in Hallandale, Florida. They also broadcast from their studio on occasion. The segment will include discussions on past, present and future Past the Wire columns, racing news and events, and will frequently include Jonathan giving out a horse or two he likes over the weekend. He will also take calls and questions. It's Post Time, already a popular show, spearheaded by JJ Graci, feels adding The Past the Wire segment can only make the show more interesting.

JJ was quoted " Jon brings a wealth of knowledge about the game to the table, as well as a strong and loyal following. He's probably the best kept secret in racing when it comes to his articles and handicapping, although the column has become so widely read, we can't really call him a secret anymore. We are thrilled to have him as a regular, and we plan some fun and educational shows. You won't want to miss them or call in."

Jonathan said " I am excited about being on the show, and I have a world of respect for JJ and all he has done and experienced in the industry. I'm thrilled they would have me as a regular. I look at this as an opportunity to promote the game and share my opinions, experience and knowledge in a forum other than my weekly Past the Wire column. I'll also be able to take live questions and engage in some good racing discussions which I always welcome. It's a fun show and great opportunity."

The first segment will be Friday, July 1st, 2016 at 4pm EST. It can be heard on wdbfradio.com, through the internet, or their own smartphone app.
